St. James's, July 26.

THE following Addreſs of the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland, having been tranſmitted to the Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, has, by his Excellency, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland, in Behalf of themſelves, and all others of their Denomination throughout the Kingdom.

Moſt gracious Sovereign.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland, with Sentiments full of Duty and Reſpect, beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity of our Annual Meeting, to expreſs our warmeſt Congratulations on the Birth of the Prince of Wales; which, by the new Acceſſion of Strength it gives to your Royal Family and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, muſt fill the Heart of every true Proteſtant and Lover of his Country with the ſincereſt Joy. May the Almighty continue to watch over and guard the Royal Infant, and preſerve a Life in which theſe Kingdoms are ſo much intereſted, and from which we derive the pleaſing Hopes, that the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy will be perpetuated to the lateſt Poſterity.

While with the ſincereſt Gratitude to Heaven we reflect on the unparalleled Series of Victory and Succeſs, which attended your Majeſty's Councils and Arms, during the late juſt and neceſſary War, permit us, Great Sir, at the ſame Time, to expreſs the high Senſe we have of that Moderation and Humanity, which in the full Tide of Glory and Proſperity, determined your Majeſty to put a Stop to the Miſeries of War, and to reſtore Peace to your Kingdoms; an Event which cannot but be agreeable to us as Men, as Chriſtians, and Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace.

When we conſider the immenſe Acceſſion of Territory to the Britiſh Empire in America, ceded and confirmed by Treaty; and look forward to the Extenſion of Commerce, Arts, Liberty, Laws, Religion, and Social Happineſs, through thoſe vaſt uncultivated Regions, a grand as well as pleaſing Proſpect opens to our View; and we are naturally led to adore the Wiſdom of that Being, who makes the Riſe and Fall of Empires, and all the Revolutions in human Affairs, ſubſervient to the great and benevolent Deſigns of his Providence.

Thankful for the Protection we enjoy as Proteſtant Diſſenters, and firmly perſuaded, that the Security of our Liberties, Civil and Religious, depends, under God, on the Succeſſion in your Illuſtrious Houſe, we beg Leave to renew all former Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government; and of the firm and ſteady Loyalty of that numerous Body of Proteſtants with which we are connected, who have been, at all Times, remarkable for their Zeal in Support of the Revolution, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover. This Spirit it hath ever been our Care to cheriſh and cultivate; and as it is our Duty, we truſt it ſhall be our Endeavour, on all Occaſions, to merit the Continuance of your Royal Favour and Protection, by approving ourſelves zealous and grateful, faithful and loyal Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

That your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, happy in the Endearments, and adorned with the Virtues of private and domeſtick Life, may be bleſſed with a numerous and hopeful Progeny, the Delight of their Country, and Pledges of its future Happineſs; that, under your auſpicious Reign, Great Britain, formidable Abroad, free and happy at Home, may long continue to be, what ſhe is at preſent, the Praiſe and Admiration of the whole Earth; and that, with her widely extended Empire, the invaluable Bleſſings of Britiſh Freedom, and of pure uncorrupted Chriſtianity, may ſpread and be diffuſed to the remoteſt Ends of the Earth, is, and ever ſhall be, the ardent Wiſh, and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects,

The Preſbyterian Miniſters of the Northern Aſſociation in Ireland.

Subſcribed in our Name, and by our Apointment, at Lurgan, July 1, 1763, by

Gilbert Kennedy, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Morpeth, having been tranſmitted by Sir William Muſgrave, Bart. to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Morpeth, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, with the warmeſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Tenderneſs, and Affection for the Lives and Properties of your Subjects, and for for your unwearied and ſucceſsful Endeavours to put an End to the Calamities of War, by eſtabliſhing a Peace, which, we truſt in God, will be productive of thoſe happy and ſalutary Effects, which, we are fully perſuaded, were the only Motives that influenced your Majeſty's Conduct on this Occaſion.

May God grant your Majeſty a long Reign over a grateful and affectionate People, and a long Enjoyment of that Peace which your Wiſdom has eſtabliſhed; and may theſe Kingdoms, happy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and Auſpicious Government, have every Bleſſing, which they can promiſe themſelves, moſt effectually ſecured to them, and their Poſterity, by a numerous Race of Princes of your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtious Houſe, who may inherit the humane Sentiments, the ſame Gooodneſs of Heart, which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh your Majeſty as the true Father of your People, the true Friend of Mankind!

Given under our Common Seal at Morpeth, on the Fifteenth Day of July, 1763.
